

Partners in Paediatrics invite you to join our Regional Child Death Review Network for their first virtual conference
“Improving the Child Death Review Process”

Thursday 19th November 2020 09.00—12.30 hrs

The programme includes:

Factors Influencing Adolescent Mothers Engagement with Safe Sleep Messages -Dr Cathy Ellis, Director of Education PGT, Senior Lecturer Adult Nursing, Northumbria University

Parent Experience of Child Death Review - Bahlmann Family

Child deaths during COVID – results from the National Child Mortality Database - Professor Peter Fleming, Professor of Infant Health & Development, Bristol University & Ms Vicky Sleap, NCMD Programme Manager, Bristol Medical School

How to support professionals working in Child Death Review – Sarah Harris, Director of Bereavement Support & Education, Child Bereavement UK

Expert Panel for Q & A— Professor Peter Fleming (Professor of Infant Health & Development Bristol University) Dr Tamas Marton (Consultant Perinatal Pathologist BWCH) Dr Dennis Wilkes (Expert in Public Health and Medical Examiner) Ms Vicky Sleap (NCMD Programme Manager, Bristol Medical School) Mr Zafar Siddique (Senior Coroner, Black Country Coroners Services)

Plus other valuable updates from professionals working within the child death review process.

You are required to register for this event

Delegate

The event is aimed at all colleagues working within the child death review process

When and where?

Thursday 19th November 09.00—12.30 hrs
The session will be held via Zoom

Cost

If you currently work within the child death review process access to this meeting is free

Please note you are still required to register via Eventbrite.

Registration:

To reserve your place please visit Eventbrite or use the following link to <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/regional-child-death-review-network-conference-learning-from-child-deaths-registration-117545789621>

This event has been funded by www.partnersinpaediatrics.org